MEMORANDUM FOR: Deputy Director for Administration

SUBJECT: Office of Personnel Report -- Week
Ending 17 October 1975

25X1A 1. Language Recruitment: Mr. [] and Recruiter [] report on a productive conference in Atlanta, Georgia during the dates 8, 9 and 10 October. The conference was sponsored by the Slavic Studies Association. A paper on regional problems in the USSR was presented by Mr. [] of CIA. An advertisement also appeared in the program with greetings from Radio Free Europe and Radio Liberty, inviting conferees to drop by their booth for further information.

25X1A

25X1A 2. Suggestion Awards: Three employees of Personal Affairs Branch/OP received Monetary Awards for their suggestions for improving the CFC pledge card and computerization of related information. An employee of Central Processing Branch received a Monetary Award for her suggestion to expedite payment of travel expenses to Co-op employees.

3. Hispanics Scarce in Midwest: In direct conversation with Mr. Jack Shingleton, Placement Director at Michigan State University (enrollment about 42,000), he reports that only eight Hispanic students registered with his placement service last year. Three candidates were at the M.A. level and five were at the B.A. level. You gain some perspective when you consider that 1,083 recruiters visit that campus in a given year, the majority of whom are now targeting for minority and engineering candidates.

4. Skills Session: The Skills Session on "Interviewing" was held on 15 October and seemed to be well received by the 47 attendees.
